The Chairman thanked the villagers for attending. Before the Parish Council meeting the Chairman introduced PC Rob Graves the newly appointed Beat manager for the Market Rasen sector who gave a presentation entitled the Explanation and Implementation of the National Neighbourhood Policing Programme within the Market Rasen sector.

Meeting opened 8:30 pm

There were three members of the public in attendance

1. Minutes of September meeting

Proposed true record Councillor George Brumby, seconded Councillor Shane Bennett.

2. Matters Arising

All items to be discussed under appropriate agenda items.

3. Highways

The Chairman asked Highways to check holes in the road near Mr Lyle's farm entrance and the road edging outside Corner Farmhouse.

4. Police Report

Nothing to report.

5. Neighbourhood Watch

Local activities recently.

A mini-moto scooter was stolen from a garage in Anglian Way in Market Rasen.

Tractor parts were stolen from business premises on Pasture Lane.

Hollyrood Church in Market Rasen was burgled.

A shed was broken into at South Owersby.

Three plasma screens were stolen from the hospitality area at Market Rasen racecourse.

Any information on any of the above to Force Communication Centre 01522 532222.
